MY WORK

I work as a freelance web developer, designing websites and maintaining web tools that I've built. Furthermore I freelance as an editor/consultant for a number of Danish and international publishers, agencies and Danish authors as well as a translator (dan- eng).

EXPERIENCE

- Current, freelance web-dev, translator and editor
In the past year, I've honed my skills by creating landing pages for various clients and building personal projects on the side. I actively maintain the web-app I built for Copenhagen Literary Agency.

Freelancer for a handful of publishing houses and literary agencies as editor, translator and consultant.

Translator for Passive/Aggressive. To be published soon: a Danish translation of Further Considerations on Afrofuturism. Latest for P/A: a danish translation of a chapter from Steve Goodman's Sonic Warfare: Sound, Affect, and the Ecology of Fear.
- 2015-2021, Copenhagen Literary Agency
First hired as an intern and later as a literary agent. I represented authors such as Asta Olivia Nordenhof, Thomas Korsgaard and Fine Gråbøl. While working for the agency, I reorganised and built a web-app to streamline, rationalise and digitise the agency's administration of immaterial rights.

EDUCATION

- 2020-now, various courses
"Learn Typescript" (codecademy), "Understanding Typescript 2022" (15 hours, Udemy), "NestJs Bootcamp" (10 hours, Udemy), "React" (48 hours, Udemy), "NextJs" (25 hours, Udemy), "PHP, MySQL" (21 weeks, University of Michigan), A2 german.
- 2015-2017, Masters in comparative literature from KU
